1. Introduction

This document is the template to use for Microsoft Word 6.0 or later. Do not change font sizes or line spacing to fit more text on a page beyond the page limit. The font should be Times New Roman and 12 points. Top, Bottom, Right, and Left Margins should be 2.5 cm. It is flat on both sides. Single line spacing. Carriage return: 1 cm. Before and after the paragraph should be 0 cm.

Use italics for emphasis; do not underline. Numbering should be in such form: 1, 1.1, 1.2, 2, 2.1, 2.1. 1. All headings should be written with the first letter of each word in capital letters, and one line space should be left before the main headings. No spaces should be left before and after other headings. Equations, models, and formulas should be written left justified, each should be numbered sequentially, and the numbers should be written right justified in parentheses.

Explanations not intended to be included in the text should be shown in the footnotes at the bottom of the page instead of in the endnotes. Footnotes should be written in nine font sizes, Times New Roman, and single line spacing should be justified.

2. Method

2.1. Type of Research: (The titles to be used in the method section should be determined by the authors and numbered.)

2.2.

3. Findings

Tables, Figures, and Graphics: Tables, figures, graphics, etc., should be centered, and each should be numbered and named in turn. Table numbers and names should be written on the tables as [Table 1. Table Name]. In Figures, Graphics, etc., their numbers and names should be written under the figure and graphic in the form of [Figure 1. Figure / Graphic Name]. The character size of the information in the tables should be nine points. If necessary, this ratio can be reduced to eight points. If tables that exceed more than one page do not cause distortion, they should be preserved in the text. Otherwise, they should be included in the appendices of the work. Explanations and References on Tables, Figures, and Graphics should be given at the bottom, centered, and in ten pt. One line space should be left after the Figure and Graphic titles before the table titles.

4. Discussion

5. Conclusion

Please include a summary of the possible clinical outcomes of the study in the conclusions section.
